IRISH AIR - CAPTAIN OKAIN.

The small birds rejoice on the green leaves returning,
The murmuring streamlet winds clear thro' the vale,
The primroses blow in the dews of the morning,
And wild scatter'd cowslips bedeck the green dale.
But what can give pleasure, or what can seem fair,
When the lingering moments are number'd wi' care?
Nor birds sweetly singing, nor flowers gayly springing,
Can soothe the sad bosom of joyless despair.

The deed that I dared, could it merit their malice?
A king and a father to place on his throne?
His right are these hills, and his right are these vallies,
Where wild beasts find shelter, tho' I can find none!
But 'tis not my sufferings, thus wretched, forlorn,
My brave gallant friends, 'tis your ruin I mourn;
Your faith proved so loyal, in hot bloody trial,
Alas! can I make it no better return!
